Response to Arguments

1. Upon review of the restriction requirement mailed October 23, 2008, and Applicant's response thereto filed November 24, 2008, the present Examiner, firstly, hereby withdraws the previous objection to claims 26-31 as being of “improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim”. Present Examiner agrees that claims 18-25 are clearly drawn to a “blank” and that claims 26-31 are clearly drawn to a “process”, regardless of the “shorthand” way that the process claims are drawn.
2. Secondly, the present Examiner agrees that the previous restriction requirement did not set forth clear and proper reasoning under PCT Rule 13.2 as to why the groups of claims (Group I, claims 18-25, drawn to a “blank”, and classified in class 428, subclass 542.8, and Group II, claims 26-31, drawn to a “process”, and classified in class 264, subclass 109) are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept of PCT Rule 13.1.
3. However, a new restriction requirement is set forth below.

Election/Restrictions

4. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 18-25, drawn to a “blank”, classified in class 428, subclass 542.8.

Group II, claim(s) 26-31, drawn to a “process”, classified in class 264, subclass 109.

Art Unit: 3726

5. The groups listed above as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the groups lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: in accordance with the guidance set forth in MPEP section 1850, it has been determined a posteriori, i.e., after taking the prior art into consideration, that the features common to all the claims, i.e., the features of independent claim 18, do not constitute “special technical features” since they do not make a “contribution” over the prior art in light of at least U.S. Pat. No. 4,443,394 to Ezis, for example.

Note that Ezis teaches a blank made from ceramic material (see at least col. 2, lines 47-50, for example) that is in green or “unsintered” form wherein the blank is configured as a round disk having a diameter of about 6 inches, which is “greater than 50 mm” (see at least col. 3, lines 44-50), noting that 50 mm is equivalent to 1.9685 inches. It is note that the limitation “for producing dental prostheses” is an intended-use type limitation. A recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In the instant case, it appears that the disk taught by Ezis is capable of performing the intended use of producing “dental prostheses”, simply by cutting “dental” prostheses shapes out of the disk, for example.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

Art Unit: 3726

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

7. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained.

Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. U.S. Pat. No. 4,885,199 to Corbin et al. teaches the use of silicon nitride based ceramics in dental applications (see at least col. 15, lines 14-16 and 30. for example).
